

Tex-Zen Ranch

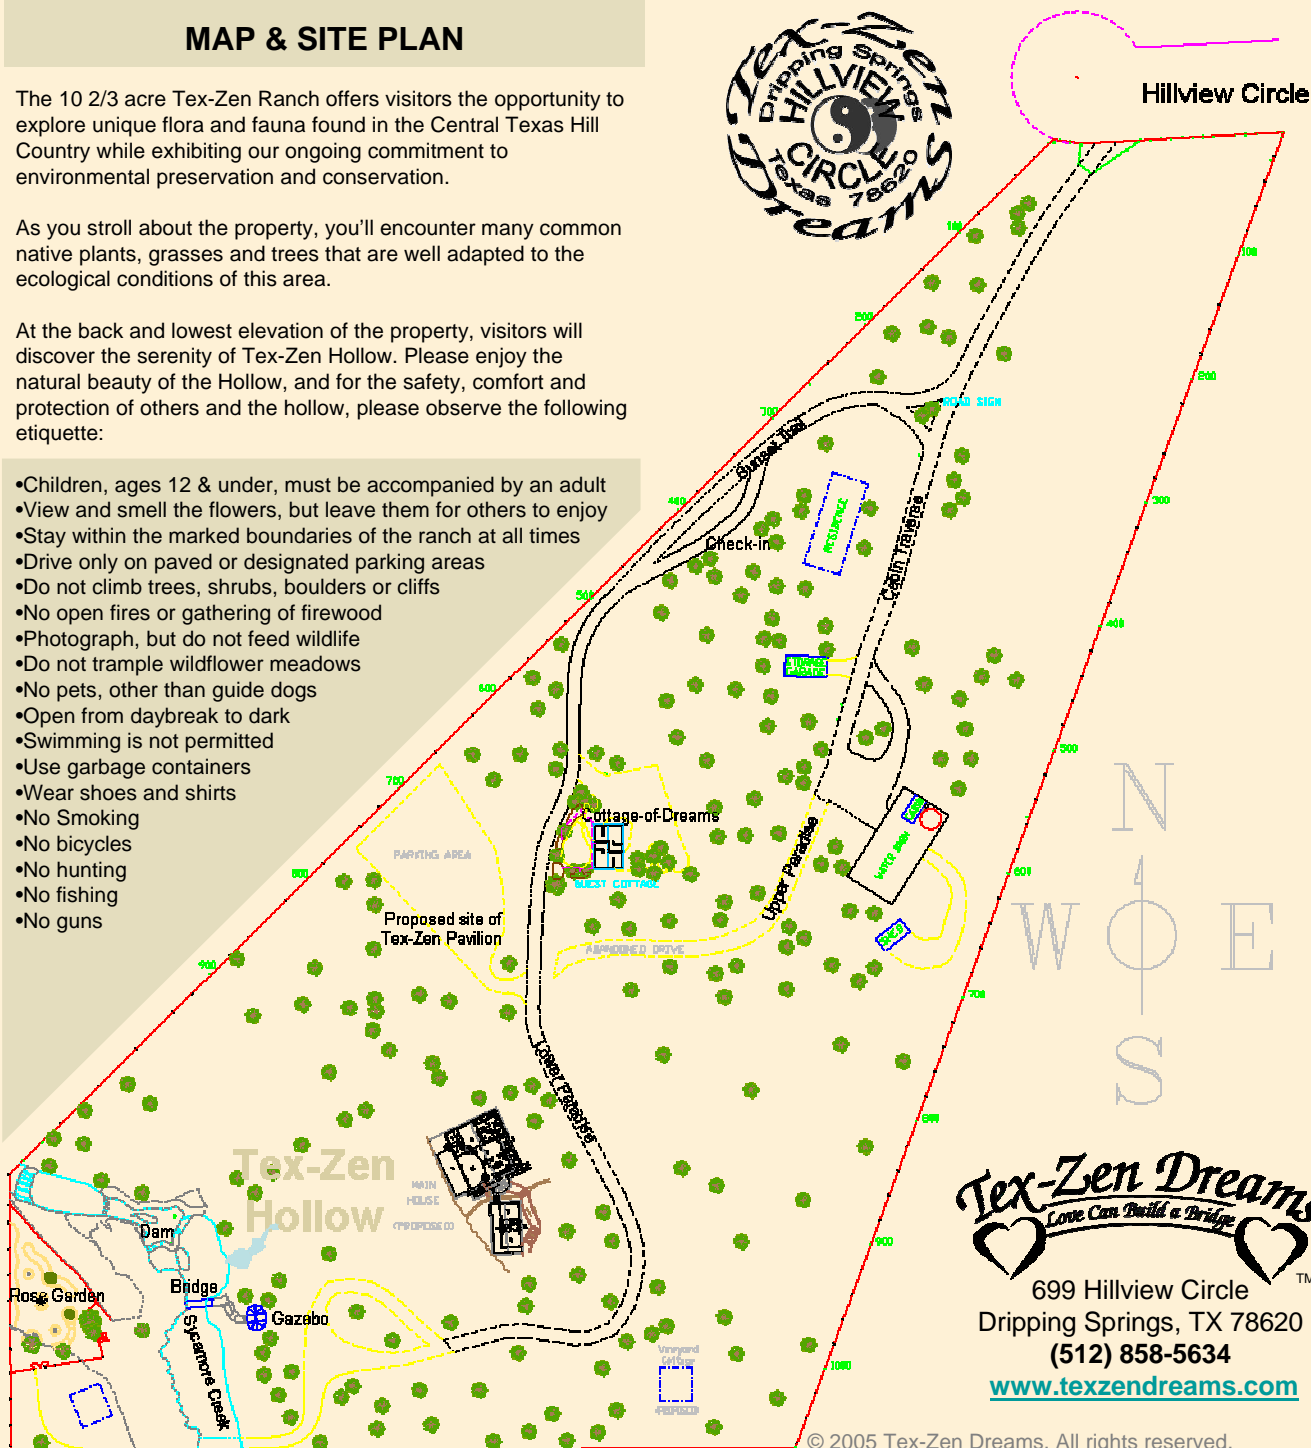

MAP & SITE PLAN

The 10 2/3 acre Tex-Zen Ranch offers visitors the opportunity to explore unique flora and fauna found in the Central Texas Hill Country while exhibiting our ongoing commitment to environmental preservation and conservation.

As you stroll about the property, you'll encounter many common native plants, grasses and trees that are well adapted to the ecological conditions of this area.

At the back and lowest elevation of the property, visitors will discover the serenity of Tex-Zen Hollow. Please enjoy the natural beauty of the Hollow, and for the safety, comfort and protection of others and the hollow, please observe the following etiquette:

- Children, ages 12 & under, must be accompanied by an adult
- View and smell the flowers, but leave them for others to enjoy
- Stay within the marked boundaries of the ranch at all times
- Drive only on paved or designated parking areas
- Do not climb trees, shrubs, boulders or cliffs
- No open fires or gathering of firewood
- Photograph, but do not feed wildlife
- Do not trample wildflower meadows
- No pets, other than guide dogs
- Open from daybreak to dark
- Swimming is not permitted
- Use garbage containers
- Wear shoes and shirts
- No Smoking
- No bicycles
- No hunting
- No fishing
- No guns

Tex-Zen Dreams
Love Can Build a Bridge™

699 Hillview Circle
Dripping Springs, TX 78620
(512) 858-5634

www.texzendreams.com

© 2005 Tex-Zen Dreams. All rights reserved.

Tex Zen
Since 1997

Dreams

Country Weddings

Bed-and-Breakfast

Ranch Tour

Ranch Projects

Contact Us:

Map

Site Plan

